Monday's Muse

Ebenezer Residents

We are providing gifts for Ebenezer residents again this year. We have more names available. If you are interested, you can contact Pr. Rachael. Please wrap all gifts and attach a removable label with the person's name and the contents of the gift (just in case we need to redistribute gifts). Gifts need to be in by December 16th. Thank you all for your generosity!

Women's Group

Our DECEMBER meeting on the 17th will be stuffing the Christmas stockings for St. Anne's Shelter. Suggested gifts are sippy cups, diverse dolls/people, animal and superhero figures, books, big crayons, markers, play-doh, Legos, journals/diaries, hair stuff, ear buds, headphones, art projects/supplies, wallets, watches, socks, slippers, sun glasses, chap stick. Gift cards! Use your imagination! Bring gifts by December 16th! These children have very little and appreciate whatever we give them. Families live at St. Anne's because they are in crisis. There will be bins in the Kinship area to collect them. Spreading joy is our focus. Questions? Contact Joann Bell at jsbell2002@gmail.com. May many blessings be part of this Advent and Christmas.☺

Community Meeting

There will be a congregational community meeting on Sunday, December 17th, after worship. This meeting will discuss the budget and discernment process.
