Monday's Muse

Cold Weather

Tomorrow the metro area is expecting history-making cold temperatures, with wind chills possibly hitting -55. As a result, the office will be closed, you can reach out by email with any urgent questions. The Evening Bible Study and Choir Practice are also cancelled. Outside groups who have not let me know they are cancelling events are still listed, but may have cancelled independently.

Also, we are very aware that not everyone has the option of staying in a warm home in the cold. Hennepin County maintains a list of warming stations open throughout the county and the bus lines you can use to get to them. Remember that if you see someone in danger of injury from the cold you can call 911.

St. Stephen's Ministries also has some recommendations for what you can do during this cold weather for people living on the street.

Beacon Convening

Beacon Interfaith Housing Collaborative is holding a large community meeting (convening) on Tues, Jan 29, 7-8:30 pm, at Bet Shalom Congregation, 13613 Orchard Rd, Hopkins. The purpose is to get public officials to take a stand on affordable housing. The more people there, the more likely officials are to comply. Please talk to Ann King or Dorothy Eide about carpooling.

Adult Sunday School

On Sunday, February 3, the Adult Sunday School will begin discussing

Accidental Saints by Nadia Boltz-Weber. If you are able to contribute to the cost of the book, it is $10.50. If you aren't able to attend Sunday School but would like to read along, please let Pr. Rachael know.

Taize Service

With all that is going on around us, it is important to slow down and make sure we are feeding our souls and listening for God periodically. Take an opportunity for renewal through prayer, song, and silence at Minnehaha UMC's (3701 East 50th Street, Minneapolis) monthly Taize services. Join us on February 8 at 7 p.m., or any second Friday of the month.
