Update and Discussion of 3-Church Discernment Work After Worship this Sunday

After worship this week we will get our Kinship treats as usual and return to the sanctuary for a brief discussion of our 2018 discernment work with Lake Nokomis Lutheran and St. James Episcopal churches.

This will be a chance for an update from Pastor Rachael and Greg Owen, a question and answer period, and an open discussion of what this might mean for all of us in 2019 and beyond. No decisions have been made yet so this is an opportunity for everyone's voice to be heard.

This conversation is being scheduled prior to our annual meeting on December 16 because the proposed discernment work in 2019 has budget implications and will require more involvement from additional members of our community.

Please plan to join us. It will be helpful if you have time to read the information contained in this link before the discussion. We will also have copies to hand out at the meeting.

See you there!

Women's Group

Women's Group will meet November 19, 6:30 pm, at the church. Our guest will be Erika Sandborne, sharing her experience as a chaplain and answering our questions. We will start with our potluck. I hope to see you there! Send questions to jsbell2002@gmail.com. Blessings, Joann Bell

Transgender Day of Remembrance Tuesday, November 20th

This is the 20th anniversary of the Transgender Day of Remembrance. This service is hosted by Living Table and created and led by Transgender people.

"We set aside this Day to honor the gender martyrs who died from violence for living lives as their authentic selves - while at the same time we gather to loudly condemn the violence that is a threat to all trans and gender non-conforming folk."
